

Local Clubs Capture District Honors

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MAY 10, 1967

B-1

Win
Many
Acclaims

Gathered around their presidents, Mrs. Ted Olson, Torrance Woman's Club, and Mrs. Barbara Wade, Junior Woman's Club, prize-winning chairmen proudly display their trophies and certificates awarded to them at the Marina District convention held last weekend. In the picture at the left, Torrance Woman's Club displays its accomplishments, Mmes. John C. Warnock, left back, holds a certificate of second place in conservation; Morton Diener, second in art; in front, Mmes. William Faulds, second place in Federation and membership extension; Mrs. Olson, president, and her four year old daughter, Chrissie, who gets a look at the certiicates. Junior Woman's Club representatives beam with pride in the picture at the right. From left, Mmes. Robert Vroman shows two second place awards, Federation development and Josephine Seaman; Barbara Wade, displays a first place in Build-a-Better Community; Gordon Gmur, named outstanding bulletin editor, holds a first place trophy for her club bulletin; in back, Mmes. John Batley with merit awards for aid to Meals-for-Millions, City of Hope and Care; Leon Taylor, second place in youth; and Lee Davis with a first place in education.

(Press-Herald Photos)

Class of '42 Schedules 25th Reunion June 10

Torrance High School's summer class of 1942 will hold its Silver Anniversary Reunion June 10 at the Harbor Light Restaurant in San Pedro.

The committee arranging the reunion has planned an evening of dining, dancing and reminiscing.

Classmates, whose whereabouts are unknown to the committee, are listed as Reda Bradford Denny, Wanda Franklin, Mary Nell Holmes, Ada Adamoli, Georgia Billingsley Loftus, Marshall Loftus, Bob Golden, Hiroshi Hamano, Russell Harsh, Arlene Hatfield, Turner Huffman, Marcia McWaid Powers, Monte Moore, Takiko Nihei and Faye Patterson.

Anyone having information on any of these graduates is asked to contact Virginia Johnson, 20532 Osage, Torrance.

Theater Party Planned by Local Y-Wives

Torrance Y-Wives are planning a Theater Party for Saturday evening, May 20.

Members, joined by their husbands, will see the production "The Potting Shed" by Graham Greene at the Hampton Theater in Redondo Beach.

After the show, the group will go to the Black Forest restaurant for refreshments.

Torrance Lady Lions

Install at Dinner-Dance

Mrs. John Ritchie, 27930 Alvarez Dr., Palos Verdes, was installed as president of the Torrance Lioness Club at a dinner-dance at the Tasman Seas restaurant Saturday evening.

The new president, a native of Liverpool, Ohio, moved to the South Bay in 1939 and has been a member of the Lady Lions club since 1952. Her husband is a dental technician.

The Ritchie family includes six children, Roberta and Dick Lamping, Mrs. Larry Hogan, Gary, William and Johnny Ritchie. The Ritchies are all members of the Presbyterian Church.

Installed to serve with Mrs. Ritchie were Mmes. Louis Assink and Ross Morris, vice presidents; Joe Banando, corresponding secretary; Bob Williams, recording secretary; Byron Chain, treasurer; and Mott Farrell, hair puller.

Husbands were guests at the dinner-dance.

Mrs. Jack Smith, retiring president, served as chairman for the installation. She was assisted by Mmes. Sam Van Wagner, Bob Williams, Rollin Smith and Al Redisch.

MRS. JOHN RITCHIE
... Lioness President

Trip Brings Together Four Generations

Mrs. Sydney Siegel, 4701 Jacques St., and her mother, Mrs. Fannie Raskin of Redondo Beach have returned from a week in Salt Lake City, Utah.

In Utah, they were guests of Mrs. Siegel's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Augusto, the former Eileen Siegel of Torrance.

The trip was made especially for Mrs. Raskin to see her great-granddaughter, Michelle Anne Augusto, who was born in December, making four generations together for this reunion.

Mr. Augusto is working on his master's thesis in clinical psychology at the University of Utah.

Las Madrecitas Sponsors

Toy Fair Benefit

Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild, Orthopaedic Hospital, will sponsor a World Premiere of Mattel's 1967 Christmas Toys at Bullock's Fashion Square in Torrance tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

In conjunction with the Toy Fair, Las Madrecitas has planned fun for all with prizes as well as "name the robot" contest. There is no admission and the public is invited to attend.

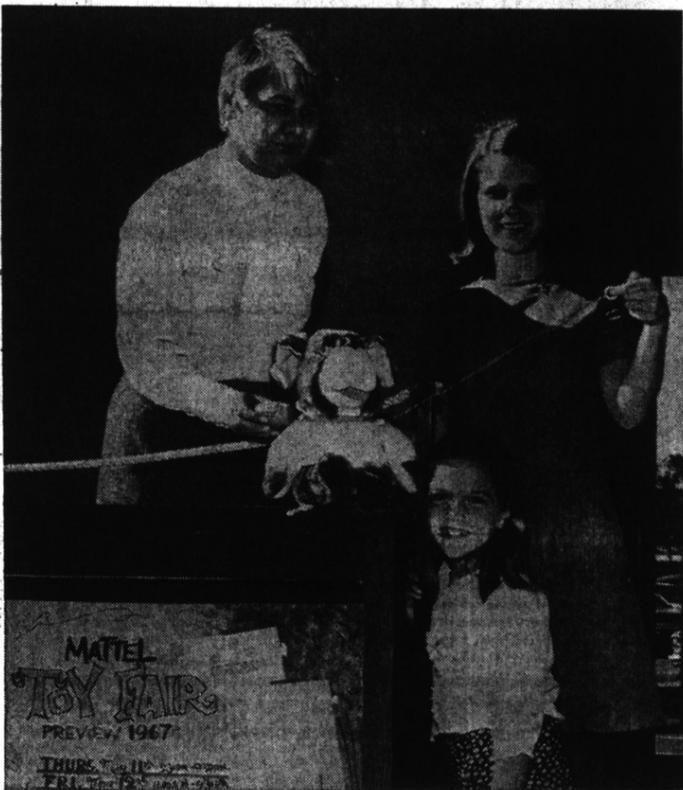

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 p.m., the El Camino Gym Team will entertain the children and there will be tumbling clowns getting into the act.

On Friday May 12, at 4:30 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m., William J. Van Berkel, an European magician known as "The Man of 1,000 Tricks" will put on shows.

On Saturday, a television personality Uncle Carbunkle and his famous "Shrimpenstein" will entertain. There is no admission to these shows.

Proceeds from refreshments and souvenir pictures will go to the Orthopaedic Hospital.

Las Madrecitas will present a fashion show and tea preceding the Toy Fair, at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at La Casita House. Women's and children's clothes from the many shops in Fashion Square will be featured. Tickets for the fashion event may be secured at La Casita House.

COME TO THE FAIR

An invitation is extended to the public to attend the three day Toy Fair beginning tomorrow at Bullock's Fashion Square. The event, presented by Las Madrecitas Auxiliary, will be a benefit for the Orthopaedic Hospital. In a sneak preview of what is to be seen, Mrs. George Savage, auxiliary president, holds a talking horse while Pat Wenger, secretary-treasurer of the Las Ninjas Juniors, pulls the string to the delight of six year old Elizabeth Lanzing.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Future Brides

Mathlin - Andrews

Miss Carol Mathlin will become the bride of Thomas Andrews on July 29 at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance with Dr. Ralph Hone, English professor at Redlands University, and Pastor William Roledar officiating.

The romantic news was first disclosed at a dinner party given by the future bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Mathlin, 1115 Cerise Ave., Torrance.

The future bride, a Torrance High School graduate, received her degree from the University of Redlands in 1964. She is an instructor in data processing for IBM in Los Angeles.

Her fiance, son of Professor and Mrs. J. Lewis Andrews of Oxy, Mo., received his early education at Oak Park, Ill. He is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis and is operations manager at the IBM Data Center in Los Angeles.

CAROL MATHLIN
... Summer Bride

CONNIE PARSONS
... Accepts Ring

Parsons - Hodges

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Redondo Beach will be the setting for the wedding ceremony on Aug. 12 when Miss Connie Parsons becomes the bride of Danny G. Hodges.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. Thomas Y. Parsons of Torrance and the late Mrs. Pauline Parsons.

A 1966 graduate of North High school, she is now a cosmetology major at El Camino College.

Mr. Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Hodges, long-time Torrance residents, was graduated from North High school in 1965. He is employed by Briles Manufacturing Co. in El Segundo.

The engagement news was first revealed at a recent gathering of both families and a few close friends.

The engaged couple plans to make its future home in the South Bay.